

COME STAY I'LL BRING THE CAMERA

We're a family of four who love a good hotel: the robe, the breakfast, the pool before anyone else is up. I film all of it the way it really happens, and you get photos and videos your future guests will actually believe.

Home is Seattle. Victoria and Vancouver are a ferry away, everything else is one flight.

A few of the places we've checked into Delta Hotels by Marriott Victoria Ocean Pointe Resort and LURE Restaurant & Bar, a collaboration with Oksana. A city hotel in Vancouver. AVA Resort Cancún. The videos play at marko-everyday.com/hospitality.

That's me behind the camera, in front of it my wife Oksana and our two boys. I shoot it, I edit it, I answer the emails.

The rooms, the lobby, the pool

The pictures people zoom in on before they book. I wait for the hour the room looks best, keep a real person in the lobby, and shoot the pool from the balcony, because that's where you'd stand.

Where we ate

Dinner is where a stay turns into a story. Plates by the window, the bar before it fills up, a kid colouring the menu. Restaurants and cafés without a hotel attached: this part is for you too.

Real guests, not models

We're not pretending. We actually checked in, dragged the suitcase, lost a shoe by the pool. People see a family like theirs having a good time, and that's the moment they picture themselves there.

One stay, a season of content

You host us for a couple of nights. I come back with enough photos and videos to post for a season, in one tidy folder, full resolution, with the usage written down.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER YOU WRITE

01

BRIEF

Who you want more of, which spaces you're proud of, what to leave out. One email.

02

PLAN

Shot list and Reel ideas before we arrive. A shoot with a plan, not a vacation with a camera.

03

STAY

We check in like anyone else. I film the arrival, the room, the meals, the pool, the area.

04

DELIVER

Within fifteen business days, one shared folder, everything edited. One round of changes is on me.

05

PUBLISH

Reels go up on the dates we agreed, with you tagged. You post the same files on your side.

How it works, price-wise

A fee for the work, plus the stay itself. No agency in between. Posting on your own channels is included for a year.

No budget for a fee? Let's still talk.

If what you can offer is a room and a table, say so. For places we'd book anyway, we trade a stay for a Reel and a handful of photos, posted on our side: usually two nights for the four of us, dinner, one Reel, 8–10 photos for your channels. We'll tell you honestly whether it's a fit before anyone packs a bag.

Want to run the videos as ads? Add 30% of the fee for 30 days, 50% for 90 days, 100% for a year. If we need to fly, flights are at cost.

Think your place is worth a weekend?

Tell me where it is and who you'd love to see walking through the door. I'll write back within a business day with ideas, a shot list and a couple of dates.
